Business Regular Member - Voting

Any individual, privately-owned, publically-traded company or trade association whose primary business, or whose members' primary business, is to provide services relating to recording conveyance of property, taxing property, recording liens on property and providing public access to such records. A company or organization applying for business regular membership must designate one individual to represent the company as a voting member.

Associate Staff Member – Non-voting

A staff member of a Regular Member or Limited Access Member may apply for Associate Membership.

Limited Access Member – Non-voting

Limited Access membership is only available to an individual or organization whose primary purpose is not substantially related to the processes or services of a Regular Member, but who is indirectly related to the activities in which Regular Members engage. Eligible businesses generally have fewer than five (5) employees.
