Property Records Industry Association Elects Officers and Directors

Raleigh, NC - During its August 31-September 1 Annual Conference held in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, the Property Records Industry Association (PRIA) elected six directors in three categories to serve two-year terms on the Board of Directors.

Annette Hill, associate commissioner/city register, New York City Department of Finance was elected to her fourth term and Brandon Krause, register of deeds, Bay Co., MI, was elected to his second term. Both represent the government category.

Elizabeth Blosser, vice president of government affairs, American Land Title Association; and Jana Miyasaki, senior project manager, CSC, were elected to their second term in the business category.

Kyle Quackenbush, manager of official records, Orange Co., FL was elected to his second term in the at-large category, along with Nakia McFarland, account executive GA/SC, Kofile Technologies, who is in her first term.

Continuing on the 2022-2023 Board in their second term in the government category are: Teresa Kiel, clerk, Guadalupe Co., TX; Sharon Blount-Baker, circuit clerk & ex-officio recorder, Crawford Co., AR and Sharon Martin, register of deeds, Washington Co., WI.

Brian Ernissee, vice president of document production, NTC, A Covius Solution; Dan Shmukler, regional account manager, Harris Recording Solutions; and Penny Reed, senior vice president, Wells Fargo Home Lending Division, all continue on the board serving in the business category. And Gerald Smith, recorder, St. Louis Co., MO, continues in the at-large category.

The new board convened on Wednesday, Aug 31, to elect officers for one-year terms. Hill was elected president, Shmukler will serve as vice president, Ernissee and Smith will continue in the role of treasurer and secretary, respectively.

Jerry Lewallen, Chief Strategy Officer, eRecording Partners Network, will serve as ex-officio immediate past president.
